

If I want to receive advertising offers over the phone, I'll take my name off of the no-call lists. I NEVER buy from phone solicitors and don't wish to waste either their time or my own. I'm perfectly happy with my state's current no-call list regulations and do not want them changed.